BARLEYCORN'S GRADUATE STAKES.

There was a slippery and tough track at Harlem yesterday. The entries closed before the rain began Tuesday and scratches were numerous. In the sixth event Hurly Burly and Inconstancy were scratched. It was therefore declared off. Only three 2-year-olds went to the post for the Graduate Stakes. There were but four starters in each of the last two races.

Josephine B and Vie Lamont had a hard struggle in the first race. Patient riding and a well-timed finish landed Josephine B a winner. She was post favorite.

Lucy Belle took the second race in a drive from Gnome. The latter made all the running and was just beaten. Fonclif, the odds-on favorite, was only a fair third.

The third race was handily won by Locust Blossom. She went to the front directly after the start and had the speed of the party to the end. The talent figured that Ollie Dixon could not lose and played accordingly. Borden and Mr. Easton both ran fair races.

King Barleycorn ran away with the Graduate Stakes. Gold Fox got tired chasing him and at the end was nipped on the post by W. Overton.

Albert S made a show of his company in the mile and a sixteenth event. On the upper turn Joe Clark made a move for the lead. He was quickly shaken off. The remainder of the journey the winner was playfully ridden.

The last race was won in a mephistophelean way in the final fifty yards by The Devil. There was a strong play on Lord Fairfax. It was based upon the idea that The Devil was not good in the going. The notion was wrong.

B. J. Johnston has sold Duke of Haven to Walter Gum.

There will be sold in the paddock, at 11 a. m., today the following two-year-olds, the property of Mr. G. B. Havill: Green Witch, bay filly, by Julien, dam Anna Clay (dam of Rogers and Mamie G.), by Trumpington, second dam Maggie Wheeler, by Embury's Lexington.

Daysperia, bay or brown filly, by Dark Days, dam Aspen, by Dan Godfrey, second dam Pink Pearl, by Altire.

Scamper, bay filly, by Bob Miles, dam Spider, by Rossifer, second dam, Longcloth, by Longfellow.

Mirza, bay filly, by Julien, dam Susie Kirwin, by Lincoln, second dam Lolah, by Northumberland.

In the string of William Oliver, which arrived at Harlem Tuesday evening, were the American Derby candidate Warrenton, Haphazard, Hi Dadoy, Friskal, Mazie O., and Mail Bag. Oliver says he has engaged Fred Taral to ride Warrenton in the big 3-year-old event, at Washington Park.

In the same car that brought the Oliver lot from the east were R. Bradley's speedy colt Traverser and his stable companions, Plantain and Boney Boy; Thomas Smith's Come Quick; R. McKeever's Oviatt, and J. J. Harrison's The Manxman—a fair horse in any kind of going.

J. J. Marklein was at Harlem yesterday. He took a run up from Cincinnati on a tour of observation.

Harlem program books for next week were issued yesterday by Secretary Nathanson. The Senior Stakes, 1 1-8 miles, for 3-year-olds, will be run Saturday, June 18. Several American Derby candidates are among the probable starters.

The program showed that in the first race Babe Robertson's weight was 91 pounds. It should have been 94. The error was discovered after betting had begun. Bets were declared off and new books made.

The storm of Tuesday afternoon began violently in the vicinity of the Hawthorne track. A section of the fence near the grandstand was blown down and lightning struck the west end of the grandstand and Ed Brown's stable, at the south-east corner of the grounds. No serious damage was done. Some boards inclosing the stand were broken or torn from their fastenings. A hole about three inches in diameter was bored in the roof of Brown's stable and the bolt passed down the side of a stall into the ground. "Brown Dick" said: "Everything that was in the way got out of the way. The boys were all badly frightened but the colt who stood in the stall didn't seem to have been disturbed. If we had had hay over the stall we should probably have had a fire. I don't see how we escaped one as it was." The colt whose stall was hit is Silvertone, by Falsetto—Silverthread. Pat Dunne said in comment: "I'll never buy a ticket on that fellow. If he was a good horse he would have been killed."

The following horses from the stable of H. Eugene Leigh were shipped yesterday to Detroit, where they will be sold in the paddock at Highland Park Saturday, June 11, at 12 o'clock: Pop Dixon, 4 years old; Joe Shelby, 3; Dudley E, 3; Title, 3; Hadrian, 2; Nancy Seitz, 2; Garabrant, 2; Hebrides, 2; Cavotte, 2; Minch, 2. All of these horses are performers, and most of them winners. They will be sold without reservation. Walter O. Parmer will conduct the sale.

After the second race Tully Coulter overheard a remark that Clawson sat still on Lucy Belle until almost half way down the stretch. "He probably rode to orders," said Coulter. "I didn't think I had Firenze or anything of that sort so I told my boy to run away with the race if he could. I suppose Williams thought he had one that could dry up the track when cut loose, so he told his boy to sit still until he got into the stretch, and then run over anything that might be in front of him."

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

In Frohsinn Mr. John E. Madden has the superior of Glenheim. Frohsinn ran a rattling good race on Saturday, and the only regret was that Simms did not go to work on him sooner. The moment Simms cut the colt with the whip he leaped by Kingdon and Counselor Wernberg as though they were tied to the post. He showed a lot of speed in the last furlong, and is unquestionably a colt of courage. He improves with every race, and will be a dangerous factor even to Jean Beraud at six furlongs.—New York World.

Jean Beraud's easy victory in the Hudson Stakes on Saturday materially strengthens his claims to greatness. His people admitted that the cough from which he has been suffering since his trip from Morris Park had proved a setback, yet he won in more decisive style than in any previous race that he has won. If a sick horse can win from a good field, as he did on Saturday, in a gallop, after making all the running, what can be expected of him when at his best?—New York Journal.

Enquirer—The Blaze face betting question was referred to Barney Schreiber, who is booking in the St. Louis ring. He wires: "A little 20 to 1 was laid. I laid 15 to 1 myself." The opening price quoted in DAILY RACING FORM 3 to 1 was, therefore, incorrect.

The story in the local newspapers that the Roby poolroom is to be closed by a resolution of the City Council of Hammond, Ind., is not true. The establishment was open yesterday, and will run steadily.

The racing firm of Baker & Gentry is to be dissolved and their horses sold. Mr. Baker retiring to devote himself to the duties of the office of assessor of Fayette County, Ky.

Time, 25, 49 1/4, 1:02 1/4, 1:16.
Winner—Br. c, 4, by Candlemas—Flibbertigibbet.
Start fair. Won easily. Kinnikinnick outclassed his field. He has quality and was only galloping. Lambert ran an honest race. She is good, finished strong and appears to favor weight. Hanwell stopped at the end. He leans toward mud and was sore in his preliminary. Jefferson closed stoutly at the end and belongs among cheaper ones. Is best over a distance. Bastion is of no present account and is very uncertain. Dr. Sharp is a bad horse nowadays. He went to pieces after the first quarter.

Scratched—Formero, 113.

Time, 12 1/4, 23 1/4, 36, 1:04.
Winner—B. c. by Tammany—Belinda.
Start bad. Won driving. Croker finished like a lion right at the end. He appeared to be absolutely out of it at the eighth pole. Parker was luckily and skillfully placed. With strong support at the end he would have won. He will do under a good jockey. Armament beat the barrier, ran a good race and showed gameness in the stretch. He was killed off in first part. Imitation favors a route. He closed a big gap. Extreme, off badly, closed ground throughout. Rusher was killed off in pacemaking and stopped badly the last quarter. He can do better. Watch Lyric. He was coming fast at end. Watch him in the mud.

Scratched—Marblehead, 112; Chopin, 112; Topaz II, 112.

Overweights—Rusher, 2 pounds; Croker, 1.

6275 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Spring Special. $800 added.

Time, 12 1/4, 25 1/4, 49 1/4, 1:14 1/4, 1:41 1/4, 1:49.
Winner—Br. c, 3, by Hanover—Lady Reel.
Start bad. Won pulled to a walk. Hamburg was galloping throughout. There is no chance to beat him from now on. His extraordinary flight of speed at the start made the start look bad. Sly Fox never had a chance to get on his stride. He was whipped and spurred all the way. He can do better than this. His race was true. Handball had plenty of early speed. He belongs among horses of lower class.

Scratched—Typhoon II, 122; Tillo, 122; Dr. Catlett, 122; Mont d'Or, 105.

Overweights—Sly Fox, 3 pounds.

6276 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. $600 added. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 13, 24 1/4, 36 1/4, 1:02 1/4.
Winner—Ch. c, by Conveth—Formosa.
Start bad. Won handily. Formero was well ridden. Sloan saved ground with him on the stretch turn. He was the best horse. Is in good form and has class. Phinzy was off badly, took the long route, and closed in stout fashion. This is a good colt. Has class and courage. He only lacks seasoning. Formero is as fit as a good fiddle. Uam Var beat the barrier and showed keen speed. He should improve, but belongs among a low class of youngsters. So does Clay, who got a bad ride. He requires strong handling. Then, too, he leans toward mellow going. He finished strong. Was third best. Overboard was eased all the last quarter. Was short.

Scratched—Extreme, 103; Chopin, 103; Al Reeves, 100.

6277 FIFTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 26, 51, 1:16, 1:42 1/4, 1:56 1/4.
Winner—B. c, 3, by Deceiver—Maudlin.
Start fair. Won easily. Decanter was best and was easily handled by his small boy. He was lucky. Rappahannock, conditions and jockeys reversed, will probably beat him over a distance. He requires strong management. He had no chance with today's rider. Watch him. Manassas stopped like a shot at the half. He bleeds, but looks good. Inclines to light weight and may improve. Has little or no class. King T. was a bad horse in the race. He had no speed. Ein favors mud and belongs among horses of cheaper caliber. He's not fit.

Scratched—Ben Ronald, 116.

Overweights—Manassas, 2 pounds; King T., 3.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Sir Dixon—Vassar.

Start fair. Won pulled up. Vassar was galloping throughout, and is a really good hurdler. He will probably not do through the field. Peirsal ran a good, honest race. He was simply out-classed. Is good and ready. Forget was short. She closed strong. Watch her. She is good. Bill is a cheap horse. He can go a long route, and was probably short. Castleton is of no account.

Scratched—Marshall, 157; Haphazard, 142; Brown Red, 130.

Overweights—Castleton, 1 pound; Captain Peirsal, 1.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Dutch Organ—Ella Rowett.

Start fair. Won ridden out; second and third driving. Buckvidere stopped when he seemed to be galloping. His bad legs seemed to grow hot and he pulled up lame. Reuben Rowett was always within striking distance. Kisme closed strong and would have won in another stride.

Scratched—Chiswell, 112; Basquil, 110; Helen H. Gardner, 109; Glenmoyn, 109; Miss Rowett, 107; Frank Sigman, 90; Laverna, 88.

Winner—B. m, 6, by Albert—Mollie McCreary.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Sullross is old and notional. He was badly crowded at the quarter pole and did not run kindly after that. A good ride on Leaseman would have won. Ransom and Valid ran fair races. Fasig pulled up lame.

Scratched—Practitioner, 104.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Hanover—Lady Abbess.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won ridden out; second and third driving. The Elector was much the best, and is a good horse nowadays. He was sharply cut off on the far turn and had to run around his field. Foucon had to shake him up a bit at the finish, but he had plenty left.

Fervor was well ridden. Gilmore saved a lot of ground on the turns. Skate was carried wide on the first turn. The pace made him tire. Laureate is not much these days.

Scratched—Jackanapes, 99.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Topgallant—Equality.

Post 27 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second ridden out. Enchanter is a mean horse. He was much used at the post, but broke with a running start. He tired badly, though, at the finish. Algol ran an impressive race. Gibraltar's race was a decided improvement. He will be a hard horse to beat from now on.

Winner—B. f, by Falsetto—Patroness.

Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won with a trifle left after a hard, early drive; second and third under keen pressure. Josephine B was best ridden. She is a game filly, too, and ran a cracking good race. Riders reversed, Vie Lamont might have won. Flick used her a lot early and foolishly dropped her head and went to the whip in the stretch. Naturally the filly swerved and lost a lot of ground. Babe Robertson ran a fair race. She ran game and true under punishment through the stretch. It was between the first three all the way. Rosa L was sent away badly.

Overweights—Rosa L, 2½ pounds.
